Annexure - 1

Observations of Board on "Statement of Activities of Debenture Trusteeship" for the half year ending on 31.03.2013 to be submitted to SEBI:

The members of the Board of Directors perused the 'Statement of Activities of Debenture Trusteeship' for the half year ending on 31.03.2013 to be submitted to SEBI in compliance of the circular No. CIR/MIRSD/25/2011 dt.19.12.2011 of SEBI and noticed as follows:

- (A) The company has accepted total 58 new issues amounting to Rs.29,106 lakhs, during the half year under report. Out of these new issues, four public issues and ten privately placed issues are transferred from the existing debenture trustee viz. Bank of Maharashtra. The security was already created in favour of existing trustee. The necessary documents for transfer to trusteeship have already been executed and registered. The DT Division of the company is directed to ensure that all relevant documents, correspondence and statements upto the date of transfer to trusteeship are obtained from the earlier DT in respect of each of the issues and specific certificate from the external expert should be obtained about the compliance of earlier DT in respect of Public Issues transferred. It is further observed that in respect of other new issues the security has been created within the stipulated time.
- (B) In respect of the investor grievances, no complaint is received directly by the company or through SEBI, during the half year under report. The issuer companies, except Power Finance Corporation (PFC), have informed that they have received no complaints during the half year. As regards PFC, it is observed that even if it has received 566 complaints during the half year. None of these complaints were pending for more than 30 days. As on 31.03.2013, four complaints were pending and it is reported that the same have already been redressed.
- (C) There is no reported default in payment of the interest and principal amount of debentures / bonds during this half year, requiring any specific action by the trustees in this behalf. However in respect of Bharti Shipyard Ltd., the repayment of NCDs has been rescheduled and as per the CDR approved by lenders, the next installment is due in June 2014 and this is not treated as default.
